

BABIES BORN WITHOUT HOMES

Love Trust for Indian children in need

An important message for: Paediatricians, gynecologists, social workers and concerned citizens.

The Love Trust is a successful orphanage in the town of Buldana. Nearly 700 babies have found happy homes since it opened in 1998.

If you know, or are concerned, that a baby when born has no home please contact us immediately. Be assured that the baby will be safe and has a bright future ahead.

*I am a lonely Child
Like a weed growing wild
Away from the general rank and file
I await a mother's kiss and a father's smile
